Your Promise of Good Service

The Press Distribution Charter has been developed by wholesalers, distributors and publishers, and is our promise of good service to you. It sets out the minimum service standards you can expect and helps you to find solutions if things go wrong.

This, the second edition of the Charter, is the result of a consultation process under an independent Chairman who listened to the views of retailers.

The Charter is backed by a free, fair, fast and reliable complaints process and covers all non-commercial aspects of press distribution. If you have a complaint about a serious or persistent failure in the service you receive, you should first raise this with your wholesaler; if the issue is not resolved to your satisfaction; ask for a fast track resolution form to register your formal complaint.

Alternatively, visit our website at

or contact the PDF Administrator on 0843 289 3967

What you can expect from the Charter

- Clear Terms and Conditions from your wholesaler which meet the minimum standards of the Charter.
- Deliveries of newspapers and magazines on time and in a saleable condition.

- Step 3: If you are unsatisfied with the outcome, the PDF Administrator will support you by passing your complaint to an independent arbitrator for final adjudication.

1 Terms and Conditions of Business

- 1.1 The wholesaler will issue its own Terms and Conditions of Business.
- 1.2 Any changes to the wholesaler's Terms and Conditions of Business will be communicated to retail customers in writing, giving not less than six weeks' notice.
- 1.3 The standards of the Press Distribution Charter will be incorporated by each wholesaler into its Terms and Conditions of Business.
- 1.4 All information and data belonging to a retailer will be handled in accordance with the Data Protection Act.

2 Delivery Timeliness

Every retailer should receive on time delivery of newspapers and magazines, for the day of sale.

- 2.1 The wholesaler will deliver all titles and their appropriate sections, no later than the Retailer Delivery Time (RDT), or Scheduled Delivery Time (SDT), for the day of sale.
- 2.2 RDT's will only be amended with the prior agreement of the retailer.
- 2.3 If a wholesaler changes an SDT, he must notify the retailer at least 14 days in advance.
- 2.4 Retailers will be given access to their own information regarding their delivery times held by their wholesaler for the previous 6 months.
- 2.5 Wholesalers will have plans for minimising overall sales losses in the event of late running.

3 Delivery Quantity

Every retailer should receive their delivery of newspapers and magazines, in a saleable condition, with clear delivery documentation.

- 3.1 On each day titles are published the wholesaler will supply newspapers and/or magazines to the retailer's invoice address, or other mutually agreed address.
- 3.2 Wholesalers will record the number of parcels and time of delivery in order to produce traceable delivery information in the event of a delivery dispute.

- 3.6 The wholesaler will clearly identify on its documentation all supplements and inserts notified by the publisher, together with handling allowances, where appropriate.
- 3.7 When the wholesaler is short supplied, any necessary reduction in a retailer's supplies will be made to reflect the retailer's net sale.

If this is not possible, then credit will be passed on the next possible invoice/credit notice. In the event that a delivery discrepancy is not accepted, the retailer will be advised within 72 hours.

- 3.13 Supplies will be placed in a security box or secure area where available and the box or area re-secured after delivery provided that hazards to delivery staff are avoided.
- 3.14 Wholesalers will be responsible for the cost of replacement keys for security boxes or secure areas if lost whilst within their control.
- 3.15 Where it is not possible for a retailer to provide secure delivery facilities, either for pre-runs or the main delivery, the wholesaler and retailer will work together to agree a mutually acceptable solution.
